BISHOP POTTER ENCACED TO A RICH WIDOW.

The Noted Divine will Wants to Have Legal Make Mrs. Alfred Corning Clark His Wife.

Bride-to-Be Is Well Known for Her Great Charity Work -Has Done a Great Deal for the Poor.

The engagement is announced of Cooperstown, Av. Y. The date of the marriage has not been set.

Bishop Potter sailed for Europe on lows: May 28, broken down in health. Reports from France are to the effect that he shows great improvement and expects to reach New York in September after a tour of Norway. Mrs. Clark is the widow of Alfred Corning Clark, the sewing machine magnate who died in April, 1896. He was well known as a philanthropist and contributor to church work.
